The Fig Tree Restaurant

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Byron Bay Weddings coordinate all weddings and events at The Fig Tree Restaurant (Fig Tree).
2. Venue hire includes access to the Fig Tree from 12 noon to 11.00pm on the day of the event. No pre and/or after parties and/or day after celebrations at the Fig Tree or the Fig Tree accommodation unless arranged in writing with Byron Bay Weddings.
3. Parking is available for events with fewer than 40 guests.
 - a. All other events must have prior arranged transport.
 - b. There are 6 car spaces reserved for accommodation guests only.
4. The Fig Tree has public liability insurance. We recommend wedding insurance for any unforeseen circumstances or force majeure that may affect your event and the performance of other supplier.
5. The Fig Tree requires a bond of $2000 as security for any cancellation fees or damage caused by your or your guests to the venue premises, the facilities or the property and any planned or unplanned miscellaneous expenses and additional costs on the day of the event. Your credit card details must be provided so that these costs may be settled on the date of the event. We will inform you of these additional expenses and you hereby authorise us and direct us to debit your credit card for those additional expenses.
6. We request that all breakages and damages to the Fig Tree by the booked party will be reported to the Fig Tree at the time of the occurrence and costs of replacement or repair, covered by you.
7. If any repairs are required during your stay, we will do our best to correct the issue as swiftly as possible, subject to availability of tradespeople and parts. There will be no refund given.
8. The curfew at the Fig Tree is 11.00pm. All guests must be offsite no later than 11.00pm.
9. The appearance of the grounds of the Fig Tree, its garden and the Fig Tree change with the seasons and in response to changing weather patterns. All reasonable care is taken to maintain the grounds to a high standard. The fig tree cannot be held responsible for weather conditions, force majeure, the effect of weather and inconvenience and cost associated with damage or delay on the party or the event.

10. The Fig Tree reserves the right to make necessary renovations and changes to the Fig Tree Restaurant and/or accommodation houses and/or grounds as it sees fit and when necessary.
11. The Fig Tree, the owners and managers accept no responsibility or liability for any loss or damage to any property owned by you or your guests, including any hire goods and equipment which the occupier or his guests may bring on to the premises and all items that are on site.
12. We reserve the absolute right and without notice to you to exclude or remove from the event or premises any person who's behaviour is undesirable or offensive.
13. No use of or adding of nails, hooks, hanging of any item, or plugging in of equipment is permitted without prior approval.
14. The Fig Tree reserves all rights to refuse a booking and refund any payments.
15. Music & Noise

The Fig Tree is located in a rural residential area. All care and respect must be shown to the neighbouring properties. Over the years we have developed clear guidelines so that your event is a wonderful celebration and our neighbours' peace and quiet is respected:

- a. All musicians and DJs must contact Byron Bay Weddings prior to being booked for approval to perform, unless they are a listed Byron Bay Weddings partner. Visit our online directory for list of pre-approved musicians:
<http://www.byronbayweddings.com.au/index.php/wedding-directory/music>
 - a. (See BBW Suppliers T&Cs)
- b. Drums and wind instruments of any kind are not permitted, unless approved by Byron Bay Weddings.
- c. All music is to be lightly amplified (limit set in Byron Bay and the hinterland is 94 db.)
- d. No BYO PA systems are permitted.
- e. We recommend live acoustic music up until dinner and a DJ afterwards.
- f. Ceremony set up is usually under the Fig Tree and is unamplified
- g. Cocktails and canapés are by the pool or under the Fig Tree and music can be lightly amplified. Music may be played through speakers by the pool against the rock wall.
- h. No live music after sunset outside the restaurant

RESTAURANT

- i. Speeches are to be held inside the restaurant or before dinner by the pool.
- j. First dance can be held outside by the pool
- k. Party and dancing is inside the restaurant
- l. Music is turned off at 10.30pm

The Fig Tree reserves the right to adjust the volume of any music played on site during the event to the agreed pre-determined db limit.

16. Byron Bay Weddings must approve all external suppliers before being contracted. The suppliers must sign and return to Byron Bay Weddings the Supplier T&Cs at their booking stage (approved suppliers are exempt).
17. Regrettably, the Fig Tree does not allow fireworks displays, wishing lanterns or helium balloons to be released.
18. You indemnify Fig Tree from and against any claim, action, suit, damages, costs, personal injury, loss, expense or liability of any kind however suffered or incurred, in respect of any loss of life, personal injury, loss or damage to property or other loss whatsoever arising as a result of:
 - a. Any breach of this agreement by you or your guests;
 - b. Any breach of the law by you or your guests; and
 - c. Any negligent or wrongful act or omission by you or your guests
 - d. EXCEPT to the extent that such loss of life, injury, loss of or damage to property or other loss is caused by the negligence or wrongful act or omission by the fig tree.
19. The care of minors at the fig tree is the responsibility of the booked party. We recommend employing a childcare service.
20. Force Majeure event includes any event or circumstances which is in the nature of force majeure including but not limited to fire, flood, storm, accidents, plague, earthquake, riots, explosions, hostilities, labour disputes and industrial actions which prevent a party from complying with its obligations under this agreement and which that party did not cause and cannot control of influence.

Disclaimer: The Fig Tree does not accept liability for loss, damage, injury, delay, additional expense or inconvenience caused directly or indirectly by events at The Fig Tree.
